

Earn Money Typing

Contributed by Shirley
Thursday, 09 August 2007
Last Updated Saturday, 01 September 2007

Starting a secretarial business is the best way to make money typing at home.

If you have ever dreamed of making money typing from home, here's your chance to get paid for having fun in a easy, rewarding home business.

If you know how to use a computer and type at least 30 words per minute, you can turn your typing skills into a lucrative business. We'll show you how to make $30 to $50 an hour with your computer.

As you read this report, you will be pleasantly surprised at just how easy it is to start your own secretarial service. Every business, organization, and professional needs documents typed such as reports, letters, proposals, brochures, newsletters, and manuals. Many small and large companies farm out typing, data entry, computer jobs, and clerical tasks to secretarial services.

Click Here!

Many people have told me they don't have the start-up money to start a secretarial business. You need very little start-up money. It's inexpensive to start providing secretarial services. All you need to open your doors for business is a computer, printer, phone, a ream of paper and some business cards.

Is This a Legitimate Business?

Yes, a secretarial business is a legitimate business. A secretarial service provides typing services (We prefer calling it "keyboarding"), data entry, and miscellaneous administrative services to businesses, organizations, and individuals.

Avoid Typing Scams Promising Typing Work at Home

Don't fall for typing scams promising you typing work at home. Some ads mention that they outsource work to companies looking for typists, word processors, or secretaries working from home. They may promise that they will give you a list of companies looking for typists to work from home. The ads may read like this: "Make $500 a Week Typing at Home, Make $3000 a Month from Home with Your Computer, Earn Cash as a Home Typist, Home Typing Jobs, Home Typists Wanted" or something similar.

The advertisement implies that the company will provide you with typing jobs. These listings are usually scams. When you get the package, you'll find out that the company you bought the package from does NOT provide typing jobs. What you'll get is a listing of companies with addresses and phone numbers in your whole state. Most of the companies don't even know they are listed on those lists.

Be wary of companies providing typing work at home!

The Secretarial Business-In-A-Box is NOT a Quick-Rich Scheme

Start your own secretarial business NOW.

Click Here!